STANDING RULES OF THE DES MOINES AREA QUILTERS GUILD

The Guild's mission is to stimulate an interest in quilts and quilt making, educate its members, provide for the interchange of information, and encourage community giving.

Meetings and Membership

1. Regular meetings of the members shall be held at 1:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month, with the following exceptions:
 - * One month's meeting may be designated for a special event.
 - * The annual quilt show may substitute for one monthly meeting.
 - * November and December meetings shall be combined into one meeting. This meeting shall be held in either late November or early December. This meeting shall be the annual meeting.
 - * Afternoon and evening meetings may be combined at the discretion of the President, with approval of the Board.
2. Members pay annual dues of 40.00 and Junior Members pay annual dues of $10.00. New members who pay the total annual dues at the Quilt Show or at a meeting after the Quilt Show shall be entitled to membership for the remainder of the current year and the following year. The Recording Secretary may request self-addressed, stamped envelopes to return membership cards in the mail to members.
3. Guests are welcome at meetings. A guest fee of $10.00 shall be collected when a paid speaker presents the program. This fee shall be applied toward annual dues if the guest decides to join the Guild during the same meeting as the guest fee was paid.
4. The membership directory will be attached to the web site but available only to current members. A password will be e-mailed to each member. In order to be in the directory, membership dues must be paid by March first of the current year. The membership directory is not to be used as a mailing list. Membership information shall not be sold or traded. The member's information shall only be used for the business of the Guild. Members may request to have their information remain private.

Workshops

1. The Program Chair(s) shall determine workshop fees and obtain Board approval of the fees.
2. Pre-registration for workshops is required.
3. The fee collected in advance reserves a place in the class. Registration for workshops shall be first-come, first-served beginning at the annual meeting.
4. Whenever possible, registration forms shall be published in the newsletter three months in advance and repeated two months in advance of the class date. If the workshop is not full 90 days before the class, it shall be publicized and open to non-members at a non-member fee.
5. If a workshop is canceled for any reason, all fees shall be refunded.
6. Registrants will only be considered registered for a class if the class registration fee has been received by the program chair(s). Those signing up for classes who have not paid fees will be placed on a waiting list until the class fee is received.
7. If individuals wish to cancel, they must notify the Program Chair(s). If the class has a waiting list, the Program Chair shall fill the spot in waiting-list order. Individuals may not sell their places. If they are aware of another's interest in the class, they should refer this person to the Program Chair. Cancellations must be made a minimum of 30 days prior the workshop in order to receive a refund.
8. Paid speakers and/or workshop leaders are permitted to sell any products, tools, books, etc., which pertain to their program at the particular meeting or workshop.

Community Giving

1. The on-going focus of community giving is charity quilts.
2. Members make and donate quilts that are collected throughout the year and distributed by the Community Giving Chair(s) to various charitable organizations that benefit the greater Des Moines area.
3. The Community Giving Chair(s) may determine a focus project for the Guild to work on as an additional project to benefit charitable organizations.

4. Other community projects may be initiated under the direction of the Board of Directors and the Community Giving Chair(s).
5. Provide donated quilts and other projects for display at the annual quilt show as requested by Quilt Show Committee.

Retreats/Sew Bee It Socials

1. Quilt retreats and socials may be scheduled as desired for members of the Des Moines Area Quilters Guild.
2. The Quilt Retreat or Social Coordinator shall determine the date and fees and obtain Board of Directors approval. Retreats/Socials are open to non-members at a higher fee.
3. Pre-registration is required.
4. The fee collected in advance reserves a place in the retreat. Registration for retreats/socials shall be first-come, first-served.
5. Whenever possible, registration forms shall be published in the newsletter two months in advance.
6. If individuals wish to cancel, they must notify the Retreat/Social Coordinator. If there is a waiting list, the Coordinator shall fill the spot in waiting-list order. Individuals may not sell their places. If they are aware of another's interest, they should refer this person to the Coordinator. Cancellations must be made prior to the reservation deadline of the retreat/social in order to receive a refund. No refund shall be given if the member is a "no show."

Newsletter

1. The Social Media Manager will act as the Newsletter Editor.
2. The Guild's newsletter is published electronically once a month. The submission deadlines for the newsletter is the 4th of each month. Members may contact the Newsletter Editor(s) if they wish to contribute information for the newsletter.
3. The newsletter is published electronically no later than the 12th of each month.
4. Each newsletter shall be archived on the Guild's website.
5. Ads may be allowed in the newsletter. Ads must be received by the Newsletter Editor by the 4th of each month to be included in the newsletter. Only members whose dues are current can place an ad. The ad may be for one or two quilting related items only or for a specific date on which the member will have lots of quilting related items for sale. The ad must include the individual's name, phone number and/or email address, and a brief description of the item for sale. The Newsletter Editor reserves the right to edit the ad to include pertinent information as she deems appropriate. Ads will not be accepted from any business, whether commercial or individual. Individuals will not be allowed to advertise services they provide such as long-arm quilting or advertise items they have for sale on websites such as EBay or Etsy. If the Newsletter Editor is unsure whether an ad is acceptable, the ad will be presented to the Board of Directors for a decision.
6. Social Media such as Facebook or Instagram shall be used only to promote the Guild. Items for sale by either members or outside entities shall not be permitted.

Website

1. The Guild's website address is www.dmaqg.org. The website shall be a resource for information about the Guild, including programs, workshops, the quilt show, etc. Check the website for any schedule changes. Members may contact the Website Editor(s) if they wish to contribute information.
2. The newsletter, membership directory and other pages that may contain private information about the members may be in a password-protected area.

Library

1. Materials may be checked out at Guild meetings and shall be due at the following Guild meeting. Not all materials will be available at each meeting; therefore, it may be necessary to reserve an item in advance to ensure its availability. A listing of library books is on the Guild's website.
2. Checkout limits on books and media are at the discretion of the Librarian. Most library materials may be renewed twice. Any item placed on reserve by another member shall not be renewed.
3. Borrowers are responsible for returning library materials on time. Charges for lost or damaged materials shall include replacement cost of the item.

4. Current Guild membership cards may serve as library cards and may be necessary to check out materials.
5. Electronic media is for home use only. The borrowed items shall not be used for commercial purposes, theatrical distribution, or classes, and shall not be broadcast in any way without prior written consent of the producer. Under no circumstances shall any items be duplicated in part or whole. The borrower shall be solely responsible for any legal action regarding such copyright infringement. The Guild is not responsible for any damage to personal videocassette recorders, computers or other electronic equipment.
6. The borrower shall take good care of items! Please do not deface borrowed items. Media should not be left in a car because even brief periods during certain weather conditions can cause damage. Use electronic equipment that is in good operating condition to avoid damaging items. If any item is damaged or lost, the borrower is responsible for current replacement cost. (Replacement cost may be higher than the original retail price.)

Newcomers Group

1. Newcomers Group is open to members who have belonged to the Guild for less than one year. A Newcomers meeting shall be held monthly in addition to the regular meeting.
2. Newcomers Group allows new members to learn Guild procedures and meet other members in a smaller setting. The current Vice President is the group facilitator.

COPYRIGHT

In compliance with current copyright laws, copyrighted material may not be reproduced by the Des Moines Area Quilters Guild, Inc. or in the Guild's name unless written permission from the holder of the copyright is on file with the Guild's Recording Secretary. This includes books, patterns, graphics, periodicals, audiovisuals, and recordings.

RESOLVED: That the officers of the Board of Directors of the Des Moines Area Quilters Guild, Inc. be authorized to correct article and section designations, punctuations, and cross references and to make other such technical and conforming changes as necessary to reflect the intent of the Des Moines Area Quilters Guild, Inc. members.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Every profession, hobby, or organization develops its own specialized language and the Des Moines Area Quilters Guild is no different. Listed here are some frequently used terms and their meanings.

Show-and-Tell. This is a chance to show Guild members' latest efforts and see what others are doing. Show-and-tell is a very popular activity. Projects do not have to be finished to be shown. In fact, someone who is stuck on a project and would like some suggestions on how to proceed should bring it to show-and-tell.

Block lottery or block party. Take a chance, make a block, win some blocks. A block lottery may be held several times during the year. A pattern and color suggestions are published in the newsletter. Each person wanting to join the block lottery makes one or more blocks and brings them to the meeting. For each block submitted, the member's name is entered into the drawing (three blocks, three chances to win). One or more names will be drawn and the winner(s) receives all the blocks

Charity quilts. One of the Guild's community giving projects is to donate quilts to several charities. Guild members make quilts for various organizations. The quilts can be of any type: elaborate or simple; pieced, appliquéd, or made of a preprinted fabric. They can be tied, machine- or hand-quilted. Anyone wishing to donate a quilt may bring the finished quilt to a Guild meeting, and it will be delivered to one of the charities.

Small groups. Many quilters enjoy getting together with a smaller group of quilters. Small groups consist of 2 to 30 people. Each group decides how often to meet, where to meet, and what they want to do. Small groups are an excellent way to get to know other quilters and share ideas. Throughout the year there shall be opportunities for people who would like to form or join small groups. Contact the Vice President for more information.

Quilt show. The quilt show is held each fall. Entries are open to all members. Varieties of quilts are entered including bed size, wall hangings, miniature quilts, quilted clothing, and items for the home. It is an opportunity for us to share our work with the community. A successful quilt show requires many volunteers to organize and serve on the various committees, hang quilts, sell and take tickets, and work as show hostesses. In conjunction with the quilt show two of our major fundraisers take place: a show quilt(s) to be determined by show committee and silent auction.

Quilt challenge. This is an opportunity for members to stretch their skills and have fun. Each challenge has its own rules. Sometimes there is a theme, a block that has to be worked into the quilt, or other restrictions that create the challenge. The pattern and design are up to the individual. Completed challenge projects are shown together at a designated time, usually at the annual meeting.

Mall in the Hall. DMAQG accepts donations of quilting supplies and fabric in good condition. A sale of donate materials will be held as needed. Proceeds from the sale will be used to fund Community Giving and Education Outreach projects or other charitable projects.
